Founder & President, CRMA
Managing Director, KHBC
Chief Executive Officer, TTRMI

"Risk is not a threat to be feared, but an opportunity to be managed."

Ken Hackshaw is the Managing Director and Lead Consultant at KH Business Consulting Limited (KHBC) as well as the Founder and President of the Caribbean Risk Management Academy (CRMA) and the Chief Executive Officer of the Trinidad and Tobago Risk Management Institute (TTRMI). He is also the Senior Lecturer of the International Certificate in Enterprise Risk and Resilience Management (IC:ERRM) – a program developed by Mr. Hackshaw and offered by the CRMA in collaboration with the UWI Cave Hill Sagicor School of Business and Management. CRMA also collaborates with UWI Mona and the UWI School of Business & Applied Studies Ltd. (UWI-ROYTEC) to offer various risk management short courses, built by Mr. Hackshaw.

Through the CRMA, he continues to host "Risks Unfiletered", which is ranked in the top 20 Risk Management Podcasts globally and proudly manages "Future Proof", which is the first and only risk management newsletter in the Caribbean. Mr. Hackshaw is also one of the co-authors of the book "Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Covid-19 and The Caribbean, Volume 1: The State, Economy and Health" having contributed to the chapter "COVID-19 Pandemic: Mainstreaming Risk Assessment & Management" alongside Dr. Wayne Charles-Soverall.

His international career spans 23 years working in New York, USA and London, England, in the fields of Operational Risk Management, International Operations and Business Process Re-engineering. He has held various senior executive positions including Senior Risk Analyst, Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation, N.Y.; Vice President, Deutsche Bank, N.Y. & London; and Vice President, Electronic Data Systems (EDS), N.Y.

After gaining extensive experience internationally, Mr. Hackshaw established the KH Business Consulting Ltd. in 2010 (KHBC) and the Trinidad and Tobago Risk Management Institute in 2012 (TTRMI), in the Caribbean. Mr. Hackshaw later founded the Caribbean Risk Management Academy (CRMA), a US registered company, in 2020 with regional relationships and partnerships in Risk Management.

Mr. Hackshaw serves on several boards and acts as the Chairman of the Risk and Compliance Committee of two. He also serves on the Advisory Board of Shomea (a non-profit association created by specialised doctors aiming to change the status quo in Sub-Saharan Africa).

Mr. Hackshaw holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, a Diploma in Law, and a Certificate of Higher Education in law from the University of London and advanced training and certification in Operational Risk Management, International Securities Processing and Project Management. He has also completed a Post Graduate Diploma in Risk Management and Strategic Thinking from Stanford University.
